DACS Reading Challenge

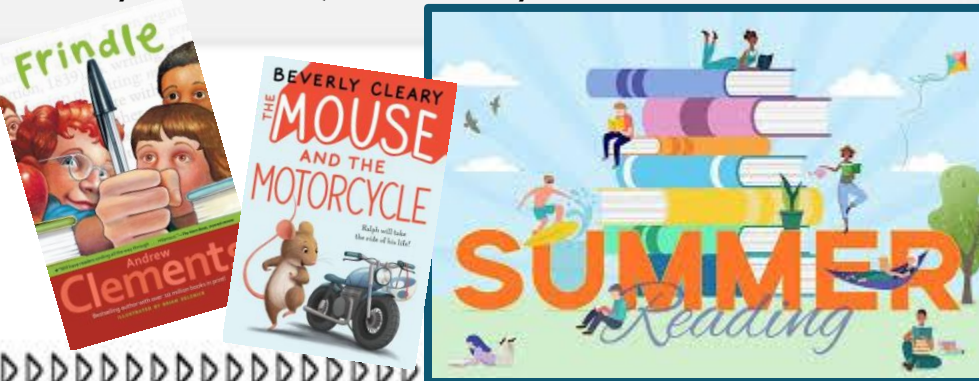

Summer reading is critical for students to retain knowledge and skills learned in the previous school year. Students who don't read are at risk of falling behind their classmates. Parents and teachers can avoid this by making sure kids take time to read.

Summer reading is very important for maintaining a child's current grade level skills and for pushing forward to develop skills above the current grade level. But how can parents encourage their children to read over the summer?

How about a DACS Reading Challenge! Print your reading log. Fill it up and bring it back on the first day of school in August. Each child will receive a special gift and have a pizza party. Do you have a child who is reading chapter books? No problem! Just log each day the book is read and rate it when you get to the end!

You can find a myriad of books at your local public library. Click on the Summer Book List for book suggestions for your child. In addition, students who come to registration this summer can get a token for the Book Vending Machine!

The more you READ, the more you KNOW. The more you KNOW, the more you GROW!

MAP test

What is MAP? It stands for Measure of Academic Progress. This test, which is administered 3 times a year, helps teachers, parents and administrators make informed decisions to promote a child's academic growth. Teachers input the student's test data into the IXL program which provides differentiated personalized skill alignment for each child. How can you help? Have your child log in to IXL and practice their MAP Practice Plan in Math, Reading and Language OR buy the book here on Amazon!
